

A HASTILY WRITTEN NOTE
FROM THE KITCHEN TABLE
OF _____

July 19th, 1995

DEAREST JOEY,

Hello, it's your Friend Debbie here, how are you? In your last letter you look like very happy especially after your holiday in Seattle. I saw the pictures, it should be wonderful to see that places.

I want to ask you some questions: Is "ROSLYN" (AFE) a true one? I mean, can you have somethings to eat or drink inside or is a museum?

Where did you see the grave stone of ~~ROSLYN~~ Jimi HENDRIX. It's cool!

Well, time to come to USA it's near, I can't wait, I'm happy I'll have to change to see you.

A HASTILY WRITTEN NOTE
FROM THE KITCHEN TABLE
OF _____

.2.

It's long time we write each other and it's nice we'll see.

It's okay for me to stay in K.C. or At your home, I don't want to create problems to your family.

I'll bring you something
From Italy:

Cookies.  Hallmark Cards, Inc.

Chordate, I wanted to bring wine for your parents
but I think it's a problem,
I mean, I'm afraid it will booke.

I have something for you, but I won't tell you..... It's A surprise gift.

I enclosed a recent picture of me, also I'll tell you the date of my arrival to K.C.

A HaSTily WRITTEN NOTE
FROM THE KiTCHEN TaBLE
oF _____ 3.

ARRIVED To K.C. ~~at~~ from
S. Louis AT ~~to~~ 7.19 p.m. on the 1st September (but I'll call you from S. Louis)

Well, I SAY Hi

now, if you have some articles Keep them, I WANNA see them when I'll be there, OK?

See you soon!

Deborah

SAY HI TO FAMILY

My PARENTS SAY HI

TO YOU AND FAMILY

Love,

Deborah

—TT